

The ages and stages of development

As players grow and develop they will experience changes in the following five areas:

Working with others

Managing emotions

Thinking skills

Body and movement

Language and communication