

Using a game model to develop your players

A game model helps to outline what you want your team to do in the four key moments of the game:

- Attacking
- Attack to defense transition
- Defending
- Defense to attack transition

For players U10 and under we recommend that coaches focus on two game moments:

- Attacking
- Defending

For players aged U11 and above we recommend that coaches focus on all four game moments

